Prayer for Peace

During his recent visit to the Holy Land Pope Francis invited President Shimon Peres and President Mahmoud Abbas to his home to pray to God for the gift of peace. This important moment will take place in Rome next Sunday 8th June, the Solemnity of Pentecost. Pope Francis has requested prayers for peace in the land of Jesus. On this feast of the Holy Spirit we join with all world leaders in praying for peace, not only in the Holy Land and Middle East, but throughout the world where conflict and brokenness is the experience of many.

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel

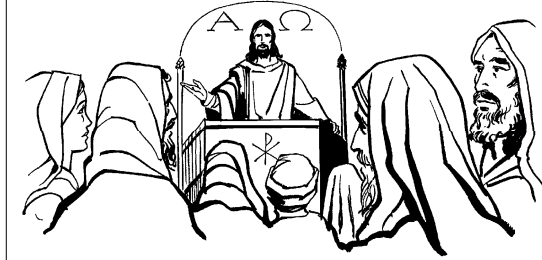

Jesus comes into a room full of fear. Sometimes it is fear itself that makes us close the door on others and on God. Occasionally a person comes along with the gift of breaking through our closed doors, a person who comes to be with us in our fears. Jesus showed his wounds to his friends. Moments of grace can occur when another shows us their vulnerable side, or when we do that with them. Spirit-filled people are people who forgive. John Byrne OSA

Prayer of the Spirit: a poem for Pentecost

Where the Spirit is, there God is, Christ is, Love is.
Where the Spirit is not, there God is not, Christ is not, Love is not.
Where the Spirit is, there people grow,
lives develop, Love thrives.
Where the Spirit is not, there people shrink,
lives collapse, Love dies.
Where the Spirit is, there are meetings and beginnings.
Where the Spirit is not, there are partings and endings.
Where the Spirit is, there is the Word.
Where the Spirit is not, there are only words.
Where the Spirit is, there is dry land
Where the Spirit is not, we are at sea.
Where the Spirit is, there is talk.
Where the Spirit is not, there is babble.
Where the Spirit is, there is fire.
Where the Spirit is not, there is ash.
Where the Spirit is, we are Church.
Where the Spirit is not, we are nothing.
