Seeing Your Life through the Lens of the Gospels

The owner of the field who allowed the wheat and the darnel to grow together is a reminder to us to be patient with ourselves and with others when we see everything is not right. Sometimes a preoccupation with the negative (the darnel) can blind us to seeing the positive in our own lives and the lives of others. Sometimes that willingness to live with the messiness of the present can create conditions for future growth.

Sowing & Reaping

Oh, scatter seeds of loving deeds
Along the fertile field;
For grain will grow from what you sow,
And fruitful harvest yield.
Though sown in tears through weary years,
The seed will surely live;
Though great the cost it is not lost,
For God will fruitage give.
The harvest-home of God will come:
And after toil and care,
With joy untold your sheaves of gold
Will all be garnered there.
—By Sonny Captain Benibo, native missionary of Nigeria, West Africa.
