Beatitudes For Friends Of The Aged

Blessed are they who understand
My faltering steps and my palsied hand
And blessed are they that know that my cars today
Must strain to hear what they have to say.
And blessed are they that seem to know
That my eyes are dim and my wits are slow.
And blessed are they that looked away
When my coffee spilled at lunch today.
Blessed are they with a cheery smile
Who stop to chat for a little while.
And blessed are they who never say
You told that story twice today.
And blessed are those who know the way
To bring back the memories of yesterday.
Blessed are they who make it known
That I'm loved, respected and not alone.
Blessed are they who know I'm at a loss
To find the strength to carry my cross.
Blessed are they who ease the days
Of my journey home, in loving ways.

"NO, I'M NOT RETIRED. I JUST COMPLAIN ABOUT EVERYTHING NOW SO WHEN I DO RETIRE I'LL ALREADY HAVE SOME EXPERIENCE AT IT."

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, send workers into your harvest.
May the Spirit we received in baptism
Touch the hearts of many
To offer themselves in priesthood, religious life
And other forms of service.
Give the parents and families of our diocese
The wisdom and courage to support young people
In searching for and following the call of God in their lives
