Deaths

Pray for the souls of Josephine Duffy nee Devaney, Crois Bothar and Lismacaffrey and for her daughter Mary Raven, England recently deceased. Also, for Margaret Flanagan nee Lennon, Castleblaney and late of Kilmahon, who died during the week. May they rest in peace.

Who are we Christians?
We are the Bibles the world is reading
We are the creeds the world is needing
We are the sermons the world is heeding

Temperance Sunday

Next Sunday, the Sunday before Ash Wednesday, is Temperance Sunday. Now is a good time to think about temperance, not only in relation to 'drink' but in all matters. Plan now and don't let Lent creep up on you unprepared. In the words of Isaiah today: "Be holy, for I, the Lord your God, am holy."

Temperance is moderation in the things that are good and total abstinence from the things that are foul.

Frances E. Willard

Perfection—the New Standard!

- What You'd Get if 99% Were Good Enough
- No phone service for 15 minutes each day.
 - 1.7 million pieces of first class mail lost each day.
 - 35,000 new-born babies dropped by doctors or nurses each year
 - 200,000 people getting the wrong drug prescriptions each year
 - Unsafe drinking water three days a year.
 - Three misspelled words on the average page of type.
 - 2 million people would die from food poisoning each year.

Things that will destroy us

- Politics without principle,
- pleasure without conscience,
- wealth without work,
- knowledge without character,
- business without morality,
- science without humanity,
- worship without sacrifice.

Mohandas K. Gandhi,

A Father's Prayer

A careful man I ought to be,
A little fellow follows me.
I do not dare to go astray
For fear he'll go the self-same way.
I cannot once escape his eyes,
What e're he sees me do he tries.
Like me he says he's going to be—
The little chap that follows me.
He thinks that I am good and fine,
Believes in every word of mine.
The base in me he must not see—
The little chap who follows me.
I must remember as I go,
Thru summer's sun and winter's snow
I'm building for the years to be—
That little chap who follows me.
