The Month of May

The month of May is traditionally dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. May is a month of growth, when nature is reborn. This month normally belongs to the Easter season, between Easter and Pentecost. The tradition of dedicating the month of May to Our Lady is centuries old, dating back at least 700 years. Blessed Pope Paul VI wrote an encyclical on the month of May, focusing on the Virgin Mary. He wrote that the piety of the faithful has long dedicated the month of May to the Mother of God. The reason for dedicating May to Our Lady is associated with the particular season of the year. May is certainly known for its springtime beauty. It is associated with flowers and blossoms, with trees which spring back to life, and grass which sprouts. It brings to mind the idea of promise and hope, of new life.

National Come and See (Maynooth)

Come and See (vocations exploration) weekend for men who are discerning whether they are being called by the Lord to Diocesan Priesthood. This will be held on Sat 18th and the morning of Sunday 19th May. This will be held in our National Seminary (St. Patrick's College Maynooth) and accommodation will be in the seminary. Enquiries about attending can email eric.cooney@vocations.ie

You Forgot My Soul

*You lived next door to me for years;
We shared our dreams, our joys, our tears.
A friend to me you were indeed,
A friend who helped me in my need.*

*My faith in you was strong and sure;
We had such trust as should endure.
No spats between us e'er arose;
Our friends were like—and so, our foes.*

*What sadness then, my friend, to find
That, after all, you weren't so kind.
The day my life on earth did end,
I found you weren't a faithful friend.*

*For all those years we spent on earth
You never talked of second birth.
You never spoke of my lost soul
And of the Christ who'd make me whole.*

*I plead today from Hell's cruel fire
And tell you now my last desire.
You cannot do a thing for me;
No words today my bonds to free.*

*But do not err, my friend, again—
Do all you can for souls of men.
Plead with them now quite earnestly,
Lest they be cast in Hell with me.*

The Penny Catechism Corner

- 1. Who made you? God made me.
- 2. Why did God make you? God made me to know Him, love Him and serve Him in this world, and to be happy with Him forever in the next.
- 3. To whose image and likeness did God make you? God made me to his own image and likeness.
- 4. How is your soul like to God? My soul is like to God because it is a spirit, and is immortal.
- 5. Of which must you take most care, of your body or of your soul? I must take most care of my soul; for Christ has said, "What doth it profit a man if he gain the whole world, and suffer the loss of his own soul?" (Mt. 16:26)

Come and have breakfast!
