Who is My Neighbour

by Henri Nouwen

“Love your neighbour as yourself” the Gospel says (Matthew 22:38). But who is my neighbour? We often respond to that question by saying: “My neighbours are all the people I am living with on this earth, especially the sick, the hungry, the dying, and all who are in need.” But this is not what Jesus says. When Jesus tells the story of the good Samaritan (see Luke 10:29-37) to answer the question “Who is my neighbour?” he ends the by asking: “Which, ... do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the bandits' hands?” The neighbour, Jesus makes clear, is not the poor man laying on the side of the street, stripped, beaten, and half dead, but the Samaritan who crossed the road, “bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them, ... lifted him onto his own mount and took him to an inn and looked after him.” My neighbour is the one who crosses the road for me!

My Neighbours and Friends

by Ellen Bailey

My neighbours and my friends are very dear to me
They are always there whenever there is a need

We talk to each other and we borrow and lend Such treasures they are,
my neighbours and friends

I sing when they sing and I laugh when they laugh We do things for each other on the other's behalf

They share with me their many worries and fears I share with them
my compassion and my tears

How lonely and cheerless a place my soul would be Without such neighbours and good friends as these

I cherish them all and take each one into my heart Feeling the love and kindness each in turn imparts
