First Friday

Priests and lay ministers of the Eucharist are now permitted to visit the sick and bring Holy Communion to those who wish to avail of this service. Due to anxiety re: the Covid-19 virus and the fear of group gatherings, some parishioners are reluctant to return to the church for now, but would like to receive Holy Communion in their homes—if so please contact Fr. Ber at 0868213422. If you are on the first Friday call list, but would wish to defer such a visit for the time being please call Fr. Ber also at 0868213422. Thank you. May God continue to bless you all during these difficult times.

Youth 2000 Summer E-Festival

Youth 2000 Summer E-Festival which takes place from 14th to 16th August will be unique, but hopefully one to be remembered for all the right reasons. It adheres to all church and government regulations regarding coronavirus: thus the content will be online, with as much as possible live-streamed and interactive. Register free at www.youth2000.ie.

Taking it Home

Are you hungry? Do you yearn for something more in life, feeling unsatisfied with all this world has to offer? If we follow the ways of our society we will always be left still yearning for more. Only God can satisfy the deepest hungers of our heart. Will you let Him be your "daily bread"?

Reflections of today's Readings

In today's readings, we celebrate the great love of God, who not only gives us life, but desires to sustain and nourish us generously too.

In the First Reading, it is God himself who urgently pleads with his troubled, scattered people to listen. Through his prophet, he issues an invitation to a sacred meal. God offers 'water' for thirsty souls; 'corn, wine and milk' will also be made freely available for hungry hearts, without charge.

In the Psalm, one traditionally sung at meals, we praise the God who cares for all his creatures, supplying them with nourishment.

Paul writes in very stirring language, assuring us of the ever-present love and power of Jesus Christ. Divine love gives us grace and encouragement to live life to the fullest, even with and through the unavoidable trials and sufferings of life. This is the Christian gospel, the Good News! (Second Reading)

Even whilst stricken with grief, Jesus's response to the people is one of compassion (Gospel). He heals the sick and feeds the hungry, and there is still plenty of food left over to share. Jesus feeds the crowd in a way that foresees the food and drink he will offer us in the Eucharist.

Let's pray this week for courage to take the risk of really hearing what God is saying to us; what sacred nourishment he is freely offering us.

May we put ourselves into his hands, asking that he will deepen his life in us and in our anxious, unjust world. [Jesuit Ministries]
