Public Meeting This Saturday Evening

There is a site available for purchase to extend the New Cemetery in Drumlish. A Public Meeting will be held after Mass this evening, 28th July at 9:00pm sharp in the Community Centre. A decision has to be made to purchase or not to purchase at this meeting, due to the urgent need in acquiring additional cemetery ground. There are currently less than twenty single graves (not plots) left in the existing cemetery which opened in 1954. Once these graves are gone it will mean having to go to whatever other council cemetery is available at the time. This is likely to happen within the next year. Your attendance at this meeting is important.

Bread and Wine

Be gentle when you touch bread,
Let it not be uncared for, unwanted.
So often bread is taken for granted.
There is so much beauty in bread,
Beauty of sun and soil,
Beauty of patient toil.
Winds and rain have caressed it,
Christ often blessed it;
Be gentle when you touch bread.

Be loving when you drink wine,
So freely received and joyfully shared
In the spirit of Him who cared;
Warm as a flowing river,
Shining as clear as the sun,
Deep as the soil
Of human toil,
The winds and air caressed it,
Christ often blessed it,
Be loving when you drink wine.
