Ballinamuck N.S. Retirement

On Thursday last, having completed over 20 years service in St. Patrick's N.S. Ballinamuck, Ms. Katherine McGauran N.T. has retired. We thank her for her dedicated service to the school, for her service on the Board of Management, and for her deep interest in the many extra curricular activities relating to the school. Katherine's gentle and warm personality, coupled with her teaching commitment, has been a great asset to Ballinamuck N.S. over the years. We thank Katherine for her years of service and wish her health and happiness in her retirement.

Your Life through the Lens of the Gospel

One of the surprises of the judgement scene is that nobody is condemned for doing wrong, but for their failure to do good. Being a disciple of Jesus is a positive choice about how we live and relate to others. The aim of Christian living is not me-centred, but other-centred, about responding to the needs of others. Another surprise is to hear Jesus tell us that when we do something for another, he considers it done to himself. The story is about the judgement of the whole of humanity. It presents an ideal of society in which human relationships at all levels are governed by the law of love. [John Byrne OSA, Intercom]

Solitude!

"Solitude is not loneliness, although both mean being alone. Solitude means being alone to oneself and to be alone with God. It means a lack of noise and distraction, but the inner silence does not lead to emptiness. It means time to listen, to recollect oneself, to let God's presence take hold. It means time and quietude to think things out and not be propelled along without reflection. It means time to pray."

"It is in lonely solitude that God delivers His best thoughts, and the mind needs to be still and quiet to receive them." (Charles Swindol)
