Reflection on Today's Feast

Today's Feast marks the conclusion of the Christmas Season and the beginning of Ordinary Time. It's a feast of transition from Jesus' hidden life to that of His public ministry. It needs to be pointed out that Jesus did not need the baptism of John. By accepting the baptism of John, Jesus affirms all that John has said and done and affirms his sacred role of preparing the way for Jesus and for a new era of grace. Therefore, the Baptism of Jesus acts as a bridge between the Old Testament prophets (of which John was the last) and the New Testament era of grace and truth. By entering into the waters, Jesus sanctified water and poured forth His grace making all water the future source of salvation. The Baptism of Jesus was a moment of manifestation. His baptism is a way in which the Father introduced His Son and His Son's mission to the world. He was sent into this world to draw us to the Father. We allow Him to fulfil that mission in our own life.

Lord, I believe that You are the Son of the Eternal Father and the Saviour of the World. I believe that You have brought about a new era of grace and truth and that I am called to follow You wherever You lead. As we begin this liturgical season of Ordinary Time, may it be a time of extraordinary grace in which I daily heed Your voice. Jesus, I trust in You.

The Baptism

Like a baptismal rite, the waters flow upon the sandy shore marred by the feet of travelers. There, in the golden glow of sun where sky and land and ocean meet, each scar is washed away by the deep reach of blessed waves poured from the font-like sea... here liquid spirit bathes the pitted beach and leaves behind unblemished purity. I walked along the water's edge and saw the prints I made, which in a moment's time were gone...the shore, a gleam, without a flaw... and I exulted in the holy clime, as if my soul, like scarred and trampled sand, was mended by the blessed sea's great hand.
