Leaving Cert Results

Congratulations and best wishes to all who received their Leaving Cert results during the week. Wishing you every success as you map out your future, wherever that future might lead. Might I add that the call to priesthood and religious life is still a challenging and fulfilling way of lifeð give it some thought.

Communion for Coeliacs

A reminder that if you are a coeliac and wish to receive Holy Communion, just let the priest know before Massð gluten free hosts are consecrated and reserved in the Tabernacle.

Garden of Remembrance Mass

The Annual Mass in the Garden of Remembrance, Ballinamuck will take place at 6 pm on Saturday 8th September. Also, at this Mass we will mark the Golden Jubilee of Fr. Jim Sorahan and his retirement from pastoral work. Refreshments will be served in the 98 Memorial Hall afterwards.

The Marquee in Drumlish

Well done to the organising committee for the festival of music over the weekend. The number of people involved and the coordination required is testimony to the great spirit of cooperation and generosity at local parish level. The local community is seen at its best on occasions like this. May that spirit live on to inspire others socially, politically and spiritually.
