The Irish Catholic

Copies of the Irish Catholic are available weekly at both St. Mary's Church Drumlish and St. Patrick's Church Ballinamuck., Its important to keep ourselves informed with Catholic /Christian news feeds as a counter balance to the secular and often times anti Church bias of the other print media on our newsstands. A limited number of copies are available at the entrance to the churches. There is a price tag of €2 which can be put in the offertory basket or in the candle shrine. Thank you for your support.

The Mustard Seed

Baptism

Congratulations to Eliza Lily Brady d/o Garry & Michelle, Cartron-Golan who was baptised and welcomed into our faith community last weekend.

Mega-malls, mega-churches and mega-storms in contrast to tiny mustard seeds

Part of the reason we get discouraged is that we are victims of bigness. Cities vie with each other to claim the greatest growth and the fanciest entertainments. Corporations are proud when their company occupies the tallest building in the city. Every day we read in our newspapers about famous people doing famous things. We have mega-malls, mega-churches, and mega-storms.

In contrast, Jesus spoke of the importance of small things: a mustard seed, a cup of cold water, a widow's mite, a kindness done to the least of people. Jesus knows what we too often forget: the size of the bush and the healthy spread of the branches depend on the vitality of the seed.

When it comes to the seed of the Kingdom of God, Jesus speaks of it with an unshakable confidence, hands holding the future – and the seed, and you. That's how much God trusts you to go on planting the seeds: a mother's prayer, a father's encouragement, a little girl's joy, a young boy's imagination,. That's how much Jesus trusts God to bring in the harvest. Just keep planting the seeds of the kingdom, leaving the outcome in God's hands. [Sunday.Prepare.org]

Prayer Before an Examination

Dear Lord, as I take this exam, I thank you that my value is not based on my performance, but on your great love for me.
Come into my heart so that we can walk through this time together.
Help me, not only with this test, but the many tests of life that are sure to come my way.
As I take this exam, bring back to my mind everything I studied and be gracious with what I have overlooked.
Help me to remain focussed and clam, confident in the facts and in my ability, and firm in the knowledge that no matter what happens today you are there with me.
Amen
