Trócaire 2022

With the destruction of lives and infrastructure in the Ukraine we are also aware of many other countries especially in Africa and Asia where families are displaced because of war and food is in short supply because of famine. We can't forget these as they too are our brothers and sisters. Whatever you share is deeply appreciated. Boxes available at Church exits.

First Sunday of Lent

Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil.

The Mark of Ashes

When red fire dies
it sinks to ash;
when friendship fades
the heart turns grey.
The blazing sun
burns soil to dust;
rage devours peace,
spitting out ice.
The seething sea
breaks rocks to sand;
so bitter words
crush fragile dreams.
Ash daubed foreheads signal
dreams reborn,
hurts forgiven,
peace restored,
hearts rewired,
warned horizons.

You shall worship the Lord, your God,
and him alone shall you serve.

Discerning if God is calling you to give your life in service as a priest is different for everyone. For some, it is a moment of discovery. For most, it is a growing awareness that develops over time. For all, it is a moment in time when an internal stirring suggests the next step toward a clearer focus on "God's call in my life." It is not necessarily a call to priesthood, but a call to consider the possibility. [See Poster in Church]
