A story to Ponder

The little boy greeted his father as he returned from work, "Daddy, how much do you make an hour?" Greatly surprised, the father replied: "Twenty euro per hour". "Okay, Daddy. Could you loan me ten euro?" the boy asked. The father yelled, "so that was the reason you asked how much I earn, right? Go to sleep and don't bother me anymore!" It was already dark and the father was meditating on what he said and was feeling guilty. "Here's the money you asked for earlier, the father said. "Thanks, Daddy!" "Now I have enough!! I have twenty euro" the boy said to his father, who was gazing at his son, confused at what his boy had just said. "Daddy, could you sell me one hour of your time?" Prayer for the appointment of a new Bishop

God, shepherd and guide, in your mercy, give your Church in our diocese a shepherd after your own heart who will walk in your ways, and with loving care watch over your people.

Give us a leader of vision and a teacher of your truth. So may your Church be built up and your name glorified, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Reflection

In the Gospel, Jesus teaches us about mission and vocation. It calls us to be simple and humble as we do our ministry. We should not be discouraged when people do not listen to us. As Pope Francis reminds us in the Joy of the Gospel, every Christian is a missionary to the extent that he or she has encountered the love of God in Jesus Christ. Despite our differences are we ready to accept the responsibility of carrying his mission and ministry? Today Jesus asked each and every one of us to not only believe in him, we are called to share the good news throughout all the earth. He needs help and he doesn't wait for us to sort out issues of personal frailty. People will be surprised and we will experience a variety of receptions as we try to share his love and his values.
