We labour to make a house a home, then every time we're expecting visitors, we rush to turn it back into a house.

Prayer for the appointment of a new Bishop

God, shepherd and guide, in your mercy, give your Church in our diocese a shepherd after your own heart who will walk in your ways, and with loving care watch over your people. Give us a leader of vision and a teacher of your truth. So may your Church be built up and your name glorified, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BALLINAMUCK BINGO

We are at the end of our trial period and we are still struggling. We have decided to give it one last trial and would appreciate more local support. Failing this there is a strong possibility we are looking at the closure of the hall, which would be sad as it is used by both young and old in the parish and surrounding areas. Looking forward to seeing ye all & some new faces on Tuesday nights @8.30pm.

Covid-19 Upsurge

With the increasing numbers of Covid-19 and its variants it is advisable to wear a mask in large gatherings such as at Mass. Also please continue to sanitize your hands as you enter the church.

Seeing Life through the Lens of the Gospel

The two sisters (Martha & Mary) symbolize the contemplative and active dimensions of life, at times difficult to balance. Many people misunderstand hospitality. They worry and fret about decorating the house and preparing abundant food. Yet sometimes it is something else that is needed to make people feel at home, names, to sit with guests and listen to them speaking. We can make the same mistake in relation to people who are important to us in life: children, friends, parents, or others. We can worry and fret about ding things for them when perhaps the important thing is to give them time and to listen to them. When it comes to welcoming God into our lives, one appropriate response to give time listening to God's word. When have you found time devoted to the Word of God?
