What Is Love?

It is silenceô when your words would hurt.
It is patienceô when your neighbour's curt.
It is deafnessô when a scandal flows.
It is thoughtfulnessô for other's woes.
It is promptnessô when stern duty calls.
It is courageô when misfortune falls.

Child Care!

In the light of the coming referendum on the rights of children, the following reflection on child care is apt at this time.

- If a child lives with criticism, he learns to condemn.
- If a child lives with hostility, he learns to fight.
- If a child lives with fear, he learns to be apprehensive.
- If a child lives with pity, he learns to feel sorry for himself.
- If a child lives with jealousy, he learns to feel guilty.
- If a child lives with encouragement, he learn to be self-confident.
- If a child lives with tolerance, he learn to be patient.
- If a child lives with praise, he learns to be appreciative.
- If a child lives with acceptance, he learns to love.
- If a child lives with approval, he learns to like himself.
- If a child lives with recognition, he learns to have a goal.
- If a child lives with fairness, he learns what justice is.
- If a child lives with honesty, he learns what truth is.
- If a child lives with sincerity, he learns to have faith in himself and those around him.
- If a child lives with love, he learns that the world is a wonderful place to live in.
