Positives in a Negative Climate

A number of events over the past month or so brought a sense of joy and personal satisfaction to many people in the Parish. We thank them for their positive contribution to our parish and wish them well in furthering their dreams. Some of those individual/groups 'positives' included:

- Fr. Manning Gaels on reaching County Final, where they were unlucky to lose.
- Pat Collum and his 'pace makers' on completing his Monaduff Marathon in aid of Crumlin Children's Hospital.
- St. Mary's NS, Drumlish and their coach Mike Mulleady on winning the schools Division 1 league title
- St. Patrick's N.S. on reaching the Div 4 Mixed Final v Aughnagarron which takes place on 10th of Nov. at 5 p.m. in Longford Slashers.
- St. Helen's on their victory in the Intermediate final.
- The organisers of the very successful Marquee in Drumlish after a three gap.
- St. Mary's Drumlish N.S. and St. Patrick's N.S. Ballinamuck for the joy they gave participating in the Boys/Girls Cumann na mBunscol league.
- Drumlish Tidy Towns on increasing its marks from 329 to 343 in the 2022 competition.

These are just some random events to celebrate as we move into the long winter nights. Apologies for the many 'positives' omitted.
