Official Prayer for World Youth Day which concludes in Lisbon this Sunday

Our Lady of the Visitation, you who left in haste towards the mountain to meet Elizabeth, lead us also to meet all those who await us to deliver them the living Gospel: Jesus Christ, your Son and our Lord! We will go in a hurry, with no distraction or delay, but with readiness and joy. We will go peacefully, because those who take Christ take peace, and well doing is the best wellbeing. Our Lady of the Visitation, with your inspiration, this World Youth Day will be the mutual celebration of the Christ we take, as You once did. Make it a time of testimony and sharing, fraternisation, and giving thanks, each of us looking for the others who always wait. With you, we will continue on this path of gathering, so that our world will gather as well, in fraternity, justice and peace. Help us, Our Lady of the Visitation, to bring Christ to everyone, obeying the Father, in the love of the Spirit!

Reflection on Silence

Many of us can be afraid of silence because we're terrified of loneliness, and there are so many temptations to destroy silence whether through recorded music while we jog, or the radio while we drive, or busy-ness and chatter in church, or distracted thoughts and fiddling with our phones even when we're with friends. Perhaps we fear that silence can uncover the emptiness of modern life. But, if we listen, Jesus comes to you and me, and he says 'do not be afraid'. Because, as you and I know, the silence we find in church is not a void that needs to be filled. A silent church is already full of God's Word, who is present in the tabernacle. So, when we enter here, we wait for Jesus to speak to us; we listen for the still small voice of the Beloved. Out of this holy silence, we encounter God. His light shines in our darkness; his promise of resurrection fills our pain and suffering and brokenness with hope, encouraging us on the journey further up this mountain that is called Life.

[Extract: Intercom Fr Lawrence Lew OP]

FEAST OF THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

Jesus, the Beloved, walk down the mountain with us and open our eyes to see you. Help us to resist the urge to check out of our lives, to distract ourselves, to be addicted to being busy. Wake us up to the glory that is all around us all the time. Amen.
