Baptism

Kai Denis Carter Finnerty s/o Donovan & Rebecca, 46 Mill Oaks was baptised and welcomed into our faith community last weekend. Congratulations and blessings on both families.

Deaths

Pray for the repose of the souls of Betty Crowe, Currabawn and for Pat (Paschal) Cashin late Drumkielvy who died in New York and whose funerals took place this week. We extend our prayers and sympathy to their families. May they rest in peace.

Points to Ponder

In the Palestine of New Testament times, it was customary for a wedding banquet to take place at night. Jesus presses this scenario into service as a parable for his Kingdom. The Ten Virgins, or Bridesmaids, represent all Christians as they wait for Christ to return at the end of time in glory. But according to the parable, when he comes, he finds that half of them are unprepared. They're not evil; just rather lazy, shallow, thoughtless. They had been hoping to free wheel into the feast, maybe relying on the good works of others to get them there. But according to the conclusion to our Gospel today, instead they hear the spine-chilling sentence: Amen I say to you: I do not know you.
