Reflection

The deepest joys and satisfactions of life have to do with our experience of loving and being loved. Parents live forever in the atmosphere of the love they always have for their children. Love of friends is strong and lasts. Love enables us to die for others, love spends itself for another. Only love lasts as a motive for any good we want to do. Jesus knows that and links love and joy. Prayer nourishes love, and is at the service of love, the greatest of God's gifts. The way of Jesus is the way of fullest human love and fulfilment. His commands are not just for our duty, but are our path to joy and love in life. The love he means is the love that is welcoming, accepting and forgiving of others, as best we can. It is the love that joins his followers together. Without this love, the following of Jesus is empty and dry. His way of life is not just taught but shown to us by the way he lives.

Prayer of St. Brendan the Voyager

Help me to journey beyond the familiar and into the unknown.
Give me the faith to leave old ways and break fresh ground with You.
Christ of the mysteries, I trust You to be stronger than each storm within me.
I will trust in the darkness and know that my times, even now are in your hand.
Tune my spirit to the music of heaven, and somehow, make my obedience count for You.
Amen.

Love One another

My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. John 15:12 (NIV)
Based on John 15:9-17 (NIV)
