Cemetery Sunday Arrangements

The blessing of graves will take place next Sunday, 16th June as follows:
Ballinamuck after 9.30 a.m. Mass
Drumlish after 11 a.m. and Kilmahon after the blessings have taken place in Drumlish between 12.30 a.m. and 1 p.m. approx. We will be following the same practice as in recent years i.e. families bring their own Holy Water or can have water blessed on the day in the cemetery. At a fixed point during the prayers families will sprinkle their own family plots. The priest will not be blessing individual graves but will lead the prayers in the cemetery. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation. Maintenance of cemeteries is an ongoing challenge, so please support the collections which will be taken up at each cemetery. Also, those who have loved ones interred in the cemeteries are asked to bring home any rubbish, dead flowers, broken wreaths and not to pile them up inside the gate.

The Daily Prayer for Priests
-St. Therese of the Child Jesus

O Jesus,

I pray for your faithful and fervent priests;
for your unfaithful and tepid priests;
for your priests labouring at home or abroad in distant mission fields.

For your tempted priests;
for your lonely and desolate priest
for your young priests;
for your dying priests;
for the souls of your priests in Purgatory.

But above all, I recommend to you the priests dearest to me:
the priest who baptized me;
the priests who absolved me from my sins;
the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion;
the priests who taught and instructed me;
all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way.

O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart,
and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity.
Amen.

Golden Jubilee Celebrations

To all parishioners and to all who have travelled the path with me over the past 50 years of my priesthood I wish to express my deep gratitude for your love, friendship and support. I thank the Parish Pastoral Council for organising the celebration of my Golden Jubilee this Sunday. My priesthood has been the blessing and joy of my life. In those 50 years I have been blessed to meet so many wonderful people who took me to their hearts and who have enriched my priesthood in so many ways. Each parish in which I served, each person I have encountered, old and young, have had a major input in my priestly ministry and together have made me the priest I am today. What is a shepherd without his flock? What is a priest without his people? Today, I thank God for the gift of my priesthood and I thank God for you "the sheep of my flock" who have supported me materially and most of all spiritually by your presence in church every week and by sharing your faith in a positive way, especially in times when it would have been easier to walk away. I would like to think that today's celebration is one where all of us together—you and I—are together as a family of faith, sharing the gift of priesthood together, caring for each other in a spirit of love. I have been truly blessed on the journey, met wonderful people, wept with you in times of sadness, laughed with you in times of joy, experienced your compassion in my human failings; our human and spiritual stories are inter-twined but I continue the pilgrim journey full of hope and confidence that with you alongside, walking the journey together—priest and priestly people—we will be rewarded for our faith and faithfulness.

Thank you so much. Fr. Ber
