Holiday Time

Wishing our teaching staff and pupils restful holidays. Thanks for all the work during the year. Wishing our 6th class pupils success and happiness as they progress to the next stage of their journey. A belated special word of thanks to Catherine McGoldrick on her retirement from St. Mary's N.S. and for her long and dedicated service to the school. Enjoy the summer and the well earned rest.

Wedding

Congratulations to Sinéad Heaney and Ken Leonard who were married in St. Mary's Church, Drumlish this weekend. Wishing them blessings and happiness in their future together.

Jesus Calms the Storm

He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, "Quiet! Be still!" Then the wind died down and it was completely calm. Mark 4:39
The puzzle is based on Mark 4:35-41 (NIV).

33 AD

2024 AD

The image of a boat in a stormy sea is a symbol of life in difficult times and is an image of the inner turmoil, anxiety and high emotions we then experience. The image can also be applied to a family, a community, a parish or any other group. It can be applied to the thousands of migrants crossing the stormy waters seeking a place of refuge and security and the thousands who have lost their lives in doing so. Maybe the world is crashing in on you today. Maybe it was yesterday. And then again it may be tomorrow. Remember, God is with you. And all you need is enough faith to get you through to the moment when Jesus speaks, 'Peace. Be still.'

First they Came

(Paraphrase of First They Came by Martin Niemoller (1892-1984))

*First they came for the unborn child
And I did not speak out because I was not an unborn child.
Then they came for the elderly and hopelessly ill
And I did not speak out because I was young and healthy.
Then they came for the refugee and the homeless
And I did not speak out because I had a country and a home.
Then they came for God
And I did not speak out because I had forgotten Him.
Then they came for me
And there was no one left to speak out for me..*
