Inscribed on the walls of an ancient Persian temple are these thoughts:

Do not say all you know, for he who says all he knows often says more than he knows.

Do not tell all you hear, for he who tells all he hears often tells more than he hears.

Do not spend all you have, for he who spends all he has often spends more than he has.

Do not covet all you see, for he who covets all he sees often wants more than he sees.

Dinner on the Grounds

When they had all had enough to eat, he said to his disciples, "Gather the pieces that are left over. Let nothing be wasted." John 6:12 (NIV)

Prayer for the Victims and Survivors of Sexual Abuse

Heavenly Father, who loves and cares for all of your children, especially the smallest and most vulnerable, we entrust to you the lives of the many children and vulnerable adults, who have been sexually abused, and whose trust and innocence have been destroyed. Help us to hear their cries of pain and to take responsibility for so many broken lives. We pray that within their communities and families they may find understanding and support so that with the help of your grace their wounds may be healed, and they may again know peace. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who shared our weakness in all things but sin, and lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit forever and ever.

It would be good to ask ourselves every day: "What do I bring to Jesus today?"

He can do a lot with one of our prayers, with a gesture of charity for others.

This is how God loves to act:

He does great things, starting from those small things.
