It's silence when your words would hurt,
It's patience when your neighbour's curt,
It's deafness when a scandal flows
It's thoughtfulness for others' woes.
It's promptness when stern duty calls
It's courage when misfortune falls.

Some thoughts on today's scripture

We look to God for many things. Jesus notices that his disciples follow now to get more bread: they wanted to be fed and not to lack ordinary food. Jesus has more to give. He offers the food and the drink of eternal life. The food and drink of his love and the love of God which will never get stale or run dry. This is the food of faith - prayer is the nourishment of faith. Jesus is always leading us beyond where we are, beyond our hunger for physical food to the 'the food that endures for eternal life'. He reveals what this means step by step. The key task we must perform is to believe in him as the one sent by the Father. [Extract: Irish Jesuits—Sacred Space]

Heavenly Bread

The puzzle is based on John 6:41-51

"I am the living bread."

Those who make things happen.
Those who watch things happen.
Those who wonder what happened.
