“What does the Lord require?
Only to act justly
And to love tenderly
And to walk humbly with your God”

“But who do YOU say that I am?”
Mark 8:29a

To suffer and to be happy although suffering, to have one's feet on the earth, to walk on the dirty and rough paths of this earth and yet to be enthroned with Christ at the Father's right hand, to laugh and cry with the children of this world and ceaselessly sing the praises of God with the choirs of angels - this is the life of the Christian until the morning of eternity breaks forth!

St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross [1891 –1942]

Reflection

The Lord wants our faith in our prayer. Jesus asks us in many ways the same question, ‘Who do you say that I am?’ How would you answer? You are God..you are the poor...you are the hungry...the need in every person I meet...how might you answer that question? Let his words of who he is echo in your prayer, ‘I am life, joy, and whatever you do for others, you do for me.’
The disciples saw that Jesus was discussed and famous and could not see how that might end in suffering. Jesus invites me to accompany him in quiet, to learn from him and to accept difficulties with him. Peter wanted to manage Jesus. Perhaps I, too, seek to limit Jesus in my life, preferring to direct him rather than follow.

Who Do You Say I Am?

You are the great ‘I Am’
You are the bright and morning star
You are the fairest of ten thousand

You are the shepherd who goes after His lost sheep
You are the breath I breathe
You are the heartbeat of every moment I exist

You are the Son, the moon the stars
You are the One I go to, when everything falls apart
You are the One I go to when I am filled with happiness
You are everything that is great and glorious

You are enough
