Baptism

Dan Patrick and James Kevin Collum, s/o Paddy & Ailbhe, Lettergullion were baptised and welcomed into our faith family last Sunday. We congratulate and wish them many blessings.

Deaths

Pray for the repose of the souls of Ethna Burbage, Church View Drive whose funeral took place this week; also for Barry Young, Kelleher Court whose funeral takes place after 11 a.m. Mass this Sunday. We extend our prayers and sympathy to both their family. May they rest in peace.

Sacramental Enrolment

We wish our young children who are making First Communion and Confirmation in 2025 joy and blessings as they enrol for these important milestones in their faith development. Parents are the first teachers of their children in the ways of faith; that is supported and developed by the school religion programme and we, as a faith community, have an additional responsibility to encourage and help foster a love for our faith practice and Christian traditions.

World Day for the Poor

Next Sunday is World Day of the Poor. Pope Francis, marking the end of the jubilee Year of Mercy and establishing this Day, said that it would serve as ‘the worthiest way to prepare for the celebration of the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus, King of the Universe, who identified with the little ones and the poor and who will judge us on our works of mercy.

Great Community Achievements

Congratulations to the community of Ballinamuck on achieving 2nd spot in the all Ireland ‘Pride of Place’ and the Drumlish community on their Bronze medal in the Tidy Towns category. These awards reflect the hard work and dedication of a small group of people who give of their time and energy. We can all show our appreciation by caring for our environment, keeping our areas litter free and supporting those who bring pride to our community.

Prayer for the Dead for November

Into your hands, O lord, we humbly entrust our brothers and sisters. In this life you embraced them with your tender love; deliver them now from every evil and bid them enter ternal rest. The old order has passed away: welcome them into paradise, where there will be no sorrow, no weeping nor pain, but fullness of peace and joy with your Son and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

The Widow's Mite

But a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins, worth only a fraction of a penny. Mark 12:42

Points to Ponder

The poor widow divested herself of everything. In her poverty she understood that in having God, she had everything; she felt completely loved by him and in turn loved him completely. Let us ask the Lord to admit us to the school of this poor widow, whom Jesus presents as a teacher of the living Gospel even to the astonishment of the disciples.
