Walk with Us Next Sunday

Carlo Acutis

Carlo Acutis (3 May 1991 – 12 October 2006) was a British-born Italian student celebrated for his devotion to the Eucharist and his use of digital media to promote Catholic devotion. Born in London and raised in Milan, he created a website documenting Eucharistic miracles and Marian apparitions. Diagnosed with leukaemia, he died at age fifteen. Beatified by the Catholic Church in 2020, he is regarded as a model for young believers and will be canonized as a saint on this Sunday, 7 September 2025. Acutis is often referred to as the "first millennial saint". Carlo Acutis's last words, as recalled by his mother, were: "Mom, don't be afraid. Since Jesus became a man, death has become the passage towards life, and we don't need to flee it". These words expressed his faith and peaceful acceptance of his impending death, which he viewed not as an end but as a transition to an eternal life in heaven.

Why Sunday Mass Matters

As we journey together through this Jubilee Year of Hope, we, the Irish Bishops, warmly invite all Catholics to reflect on the profound gift of Sunday Mass. This special year offers a unique opportunity to rediscover the heart of our faith and, for those who have been away, to return with renewed joy to the celebration of the Eucharist. Sunday – the day of the Lord – has always held a central place in the life of the Church. It is the day of resurrection, rest, and Eucharist. It is the day when we gather as a community, united in our love for Christ, to encounter the risen Lord and be nourished in body and soul. [See Bishop's Pastoral Letter]
