World Day of Migrants and Refugees

The theme of Pope Leo XIV's message for the 111th World Day of Migrants and Refugees is: Migrants, missionaries of hope. In this message, the Holy Father emphasizes the important witness that Catholic migrants and refugees can offer in a world affected by conflict and inequality in hoping and searching for a better and more peaceful future.

"Things we carry On The Sea" by wang ping

We carry tears in our eyes: good-bye father, good-bye mother We carry soil in small bags: may home never fade in our hearts We carry names, stories, memories of our villages, fields, boats. We carry scars from proxy wars of greed. We carry carnage of mining, droughts, floods, genocides We carry dust of our families and neighbours incinerated in mushroom clouds We carry our islands sinking under the sea

Refugees by Brian Bilston

They have no need of our help
So do not tell me
These haggard faces could belong to you or I Should life have dealt a different hand We need to see them for who they really are Chancers and scroungers
Layabouts and loungers
With bombs up their sleeves Cut-throats and thieves
They are not Welcome here
We should make them Go back to where they came from They cannot Share our food
Share our homes
Share our countries
Instead let us
Build a wall to keep them out
It is not okay to say
These are people just like us A place should only belong to those who are born there Do not be so stupid to think that The world can be looked at another way (Now read from bottom to top)
