Drumlish & Ballinamuck Parish Newsletter

Nobody can do as much damage to the church of God as the man who is within its walls, but not within its life.

-Charles Spurgeon

For your Diary

- On Saturday next, 15th November we will include in our Vigil Mass in St. Mary's Church a special 'Lighting Ceremony' in remembrance of all our deceased. It will include the naming of all those from the Parish who died since November last year and a short quiet time for reflection and remembrance. Please inform families who have lost a family member in the past year and might wish them to be remembered at this Mass
- On Sunday, 7th December the official turning on of the Christmas lights will take place in Drumlish after the Christmas Carol Service at 5.30 p.m. in St. Mary's Church. All are invited to the Carol Service. See the various posters displayed for further information.

The Key

The Key is a new free publication by the Irish Dominican Friars dealing with our faith and the life that flows from that faith. Because of our Baptismal calling we have a duty to keep ourselves informed about our faith and the teachings of the church. If we don't understand our faith and the teachings of the church how can we defend them to our children and to a very critical social media? There are copies at the back of our churches and I encourage families to take home a free copy. The information can act as a corrective to some of the awful material that feeds our lives from social media. Give it a GO!

Copies of the Irish Catholic are available weekly inside the front door of St. Mary's Church Drumlish

An Invitation

We bid you come, blessed Sunday
A fine lovely day after the week
A fine and lovely day to speak to Christ.
Stir your feet and make your way to Mass.
Stir your heart and drive from it all spite.
Stir your lips and speak words of blessing,
Look up and see the Son of the blessed Nurse,
The Son of the Virgin, for it was he who redeemed us;
May we be his in life and in death.

Those who wish to have their deceased remembered during November, please fill in one of the forms at church doors and place in the Box in front of the Ambo
