Death

Pray for the repose of the soul of Marcella Hurson, Clonsilla & Gaigue whose funeral took place during the week. May she rest in peace.

Congratulations!

Congratulations and best wishes to all the young people of the parish who received their Leaving Cert results during the week. Wishing you happiness and success on whatever road your journey takes from here. Keep your mind and heart open the voice of the Lord—he may be calling you. It is still a great call—challenging, frustrating but deeply rewarding.

Foreigners-Pagans-Outsiders-Canaanites!

As we move into the twenty first century, the sheer number of people around the world currently displaced and living outside their home territory is fast approaching a staggering 100,000,000. The causes have been legion: wars, so-called ethnic cleansing, natural disasters, political and economic pressures, and, always, the hope for a better life. In the Jewish and Christian traditions we turn instinctively to the pages of the Scriptures for the strength, consolation, and motivation to respond in effective ways to this situation. Yet many who deal with the demanding practical side of caring for "people on the move" find limited time to explore and draw nourishment from the rich contributions which the Scriptures can offer. "When a stranger sojourns with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong. . . . He shall be to you as the native among you and you shall love him as yourself". (Lev 19:33-34).

Jesus is concealed in the stranger. Easily the most frequently cited text from the New Testament on the topic of unknown outsiders are the words which will be spoken by the Son of Man at the Second Coming: "Come, O blessed of my Father. . . . For I was a stranger and you welcomed me." . . . Then the righteous will answer him, "Lord, when did we see you a stranger and welcome you?" . . . And the King will answer them: "Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these, you did it to me" (Matt 25:34-35, 38, 40).

*These Strangers, in a foreign World,
Protection asked of me—
Befriend them, lest Yourself in Heaven
Be found a Refugee—*

Emily Dickinson
