Awareness! Reading the Signs

One day a Chinese monk was walking with his favourite student in a grove of fruit trees. The teacher, who lost his eyesight early in life, was the "Blind Master." As they passed near a large peach tree, the teacher tilted his head in order to miss some low-hanging branches. The student noticed this in amazement and asked, "Blind Master, how is it that you saw those limbs?"

The Blind Master, ever a teacher, answered, "To see with the eye is only one sensation. I hear the wind sing softly in the tree branches." The monk continued, "Close your eyes and tell me what you hear. Do you hear your own heartbeat?...Do you hear the grasshopper at your feet?" The young pupil looked down in astonishment and saw his first grasshopper of the new spring. "Teacher, how do you hear these things? The student exclaimed. "Student," the Blind Master replied, "how do you not hear them?"

After Death—What?

...according to Jesus

If anyone is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when he comes in his Father's glory with the holy angels.
MAT 10:33

During this month as we recall with love the memories of dear ones who have gone before us, we ask the living God to grace us with an awareness of how blessed we are:
Blessed with their wisdom that guided us
Blessed with their courage that lifted us
Blessed with their generosity that filled us
Blessed with their love that formed us.
Gracious God may we in turn not be slow to share the blessings we have received and may we live confidently trusting that in you, life is changed and never taken away.
We make this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen
