The Tate Family

Do you know how many of the Tate family belong to your church? There is one named, Dictate, who wants to run everything. And there is Agitate, who stirs up plenty of trouble with help from her husband, Irritate. Whenever new projects are suggested, Hesitate and his wife, Vegetate, want to wait until next year. Then there is Aunt Imitate who wants your church to be like all the other churches. Devastate provides the voice of doom while Potentate wants to be a big shot. But not all the Tate family members are bad. Facilitate is quite helpful in church matters; and a delightful member in the family is Felicitate. Cousins Cogitate and Meditate always think things over, and lend a helpful, steady hand. And, of course, there is the black sheep of the family – Amputate, who has completely cut himself off from the church.

Successful Families

According to a study of more than 500 family counsellors, the following are the top traits of successful families:

- Communicating and listening
- Affirming and supporting family members
- Respecting one another
- Developing a sense of trust
- Sharing time and responsibility
- Knowing right from wrong
- Having rituals and traditions
- Sharing a religious core
- Respecting privacy.

The Family of God

There is no longer Jew or Gentile, slave or free, male and female. For you are all one in Christ Jesus. Galatians 3:28 (NLT)
