Life Through the Lens of the Gospel

Jesus distinguishes between food that gives quick satisfaction and food that gives lasting nourishment. It is a mark of wisdom to be able to say 'no' to enticing but delusory attractions in order to choose things of lasting value. Jesus reminds his listeners that God is the source of all good things. The work of God is that we 'believe in the one whom God has sent.' As Jesus came down from heaven to give life to the world, so each one of us is here to be a source of life to others. Think of people who have been a source of life to you, and give thanks for them.
[John Byrne OSA, Intercom]

Diocese of Ardagh and Clonmacnois Appointments 2021

Fr Patrick Murphy, PP Mohill and Fenagh, appointed Administrator Athlone
Fr Nigel Charles, Administrator Streete and Rathowen, appointed PP Mohill and Fenagh
Fr Declan Shannon, Administrator Athlone, appointed Chaplain, the Defence Forces, Custume Barracks, Athlone
Fr Pierre Pepper, CC Athlone, appointed Administrator Streete and Rathowen
Fr Reji Kurian, CC Longford, appointed resident priest Boher, Syro Malabar chaplain and assist in Athlone
Fr Joseph Okere, on study leave and resident priest Boher, is appointed to the staff of the National Missionary Seminary of St Paul, Abuja, Nigeria
I thank all our priests for all their dedicated and generous service. I thank the Parish Pastoral Councils for the important role they carry out at local level. This year our two largest parishes, Athlone and Longford, each have a reduction in clergy. Unfortunately, because of the age profile of clergy and lack of vocations, some priests will not be replaced as they retire or are reassigned. I encourage continued collaboration between parishes. I also encourage continued prayer and support for vocations in the Diocese.
I wish every blessing and happiness to all our clergy who are taking up new appointments.
Francis Duffy
Bishop of Ardagh and Clonmacnois
