The Land of Greed

*The millionaires became billionaires,
And the billionaires became trillionaires,
And the trillionaires became zillionaires,
As they sat on their mountains of gold;
But there never seemed to be enough
For the sick and the poor and the old.*

*The tanks still got built and the bombs still got made,
And no matter the season the banks still got paid,
But the budgets could never find money to spare
For the ones who had nothing, but an unheeded prayer.*

Life is more than Possessions

While it is not wrong to have wealth or possessions, it becomes problematic when they become the centre of our lives; Jesus warns against all kinds of greed. While it is wise to plan for the future, it is equally wise to live in the present, with gratitude, generosity and an awareness of life's fragility. Today we ask ourselves: what treasures are we storing up? Are our barns filled only with earthly possessions or with acts of kindness, love and faithfulness. Are we rich in material wealth but bankrupt in our relationship with God.? [Extract: Intercom]

The Parable of the Rich Fool

Then he said, "Beware! Guard against every kind of greed. Life is not measured by how much you own."

Reflection

Lord, give us imaginations big enough to reach up to yours. But make us grounded enough to want only to love and humbly serve others as best we can. Help us to do everything for the greater glory of God.
