St. Brigid—Did you know?

Legend holds that Brigid made her first cross from rushes she picked from the floor as she visited a pagan chieftain who was dying. While sitting by his bed she began to weave the rushes into the shape of a cross and tell the stories of her Christian faith. The cross became a symbol of peace and protection, protection of animals and protection from fire and disease and a blessing for home and hearth. Crosses were exchanged too in times of clan feuds as a sign of reconciliation. From that time Irish people have never ceased to weave these crosses. These rushes represent our hopes, our dreams, our gifts and our efforts in working towards a more caring society.

St. Brigid's Blessing

May Brigid bless the house wherein you dwell
Bless every fireside every wall and door
Bless every heart that beats beneath its roof
Bless every hand that toils to bring it joy
Bless every foot that walks its portals through
May Brigid bless the house that shelters you.

Pray for the souls of Anne McGauran nee Tully, Ballinagh, sister of Michael Tully, Currabawn and for Rose Marie Garvey nee O'Neill, wife of the late Eugene, Dublin & Drumlish, whose interment took place to Drumlish this week. May their souls rest in peace. We extend our prayers and sympathy to both families.
