Death

Pray for the repose of the soul of John Joe Connaughton, Portlaoise and late of Currabawn whose funeral took place during the week. May he rest in peace.

Cemetery Sunday

Thanks to all who made the special effort to celebrate Cemetery Sunday and remember their deceased. Thanks also to those who looked after the cemeteries. The collection in the cemetery on Cemetery Sunday only raised a total of €2,154.54 for the New Cemetery Fund. While commending the large attendances at the actual cemeteries, the attendance at the 12 o'clock Sunday Mass in Drumlish was disappointing ☉ surely the one thing that was most dear to the memories of those who have died.

Reach v Grasp!

In one of his tales James Barrie writes: "The life of every man is a diary in which he means to write one story and writes another, and his humblest hour is when he compares the volume as it is with what he vowed to make it." There is always a difference between the reach and the grasp.

What is Life to You?

To the preacher life's a sermon,
to the joker it's a jest;
to the miser life is money,
to the loafer life is rest.
To the lawyer life's a trial,
to the poet life's a song,
to the doctor life's a patient that needs treatment right along.
To the soldier life's a baffle,
to the teacher life's a school;
life's a good thing to the grafter,
it's a failure to the fool.
To the man upon the engine life's a long and heavy grade;
it's a gamble to the gambler,
to the merchant life is trade.
Life is but a long vacation
to the man who loves his work;
life's an everlasting effort
to shun duty, to the shirk;
to the earnest, sincere worker life's a story ever new;
life is what we try to make it—
brother, what is life to you?
